Weekly Newsletter - January 13, 2019

Family Matters

Casey Hux underwent an emergency C-section Thursday night, but we are thankful to announce that she is recovering well and that Nelsie Hux was born measuring 15 inches and weighing 2 lbs, 6 oz. Nelsie will remain at UT as she continues to grow and gain weight.

Oscar Farley learned that he does not qualify for a lung transplant.

Please remember Pat Kinder as she recovers from her recent procedure.

Rosie Dillard's stint procedure has been postponed for 2-3 months.

Please remember Mistie Hale as she has resumed her cancer treatments.

Jennifer Martin's father Ken Polston will be re-evaluated in a few months after a spot was detected on his shoulder.

Mike McGuire's brother Johnny McGuire is not doing well from his brain bleed. Please keep him and his family in your prayers. Robert Breeding's sister Jackie Kennedy is in a medically-induced coma after suffering from excessive bleeding from ulcers. Prayers have been requested for Chuck Smith and David Dunn as both are now in Hospice care with cancer.

Welcome!

Are you new?

Whether you're just visiting or looking for a church home, it is great to have you with us. If you have any questions or would like to know more about our church family, feel free to speak with any member or take a brochure located in the hall.

What to Expect

All that we ask of you is to relax. We are people just like you. Please complete a 'Connection Card' from the pew in front of you. This is solely for our records — you won't get any surprise visits. Our worship order is listed on the back of this newsletter. As our guest, please don't feel obligated to give to the offering.

Thank you for being with us!

2019: “Come, Follow Me”

God has blessed this church with a wonderful beginning to 2019. On New Year’s Day, Aaron & Megan Hopson both put on Christ in baptism, and we have enjoyed an overall spirit of renewal in recent times. Last week we introduced Morristown Church of Christ’s theme for 2019 of “Come, Follow Me.” In reality “Come, follow me” is far more than a theme; it is the Lord’s invitation to each one of us to become his disciple. As we stated last week, “Come, Follow Me” can be broken down through the following three ideas:

- Come: Live With Jesus
- Follow: Live Like Jesus
- Me: Live for Jesus

Living with, living like, and living for Jesus is an easy-to-remember summary of what it means to be a disciple. As we live with, live like and live for Jesus, we will find ourselves more fulfilled in God’s eternal purpose for us. I’m excited about what this year holds for all of us and invite all of us to follow Jesus together. — Blaine

Follow This This Week

In connection with our 2019 theme “Come, Follow Me,” Blaine will provide weekly takeaways from the sermon to help each of us live out discipleship on a daily basis. They will be included in the sermon under the heading “Follow This This Week.” Blaine welcomes any ideas or suggestions you might have for “Follow This This Week.”

2019 Budget

Thank you to everyone for your generous giving that allowed us to meet our budget in 2018 and provide for special projects and ministry efforts. The elders have set the 2019 Weekly Budget at $3,900. In addition to our regular expenses and works that we support, we anticipate some larger expenses this year to maintain our physical facility. Beyond these physical needs, let us especially invest ourselves in personal discipleship and contributing to the church’s collective efforts.
