From the Elders

As of this printing, state recommendations for church gatherings remain unchanged. Therefore, we will continue to meet for worship and Bible study online through May 15. This is a fluid situation that we are closely monitoring, and like you, we greatly desire to be together again as soon as is reasonably possible. When that time comes, we want to re-assemble with as little risk as possible, and we are presently putting together plans with that in mind. Thank you to everyone for your patience. Please continue to pray, encourage one another, and worship with your church family each week. We love and appreciate each of you.

The Church Is Not the Building

By: Steve Higginbotham, Karns Church of Christ

All my life, I have heard the oft-repeated message, “The church is not the building, it’s the people.” Another way I have heard it expressed is, “You can’t ‘go to church’ because you are the church.”

Well, now is the time to prove it! Our meeting houses have been empty for a month now, but the church is as busy as it ever has been!

While our church buildings have been as silent as a tomb for the past month, the church has raised her voice and proclaimed the gospel of Jesus broader than ever before.

While the doors to our church buildings have been locked and none are entering, the doors to the church are still open and many have walked through those doors into a new or renewed relationship with God.

While our church buildings are dark, the church remains a light to the world, reflecting the brightness of God’s glory to the world.

While the last echos of laughter and edification have long since faded away in our church buildings, the church is as active as ever in building up one another in the most holy faith.

And while our church buildings are currently unused tools in the churches’ toolbox, thank God they are not the only tool in our toolbox, and thus the work continues.

You know, what I’ve heard all my life is right! The church is not the building, it’s the people, and this pandemic has demonstrated it. The church building is not the focal point of our religion, Jesus is! Remember, the church is not a building, it’s the people!
