More Than “Just a Card”

This past week the church received an unusual package in the mail. It was from Pam Montanaro, the daughter of Racene Hassard. As we announced last week, our sister Racene passed away recently. She was a member here several years ago before moving to California to be closer to her daughter.

In the years since Racene moved to California, our Prayer Group continued to send her cards and pray for her. In the minds of some, sending cards and praying for others may be considered small gestures. I keep being reminded, however, that they are great acts of faith in God and love for others. I have also been reminded that these acts make a profound impression on others.

That brings me back to the package we received. In it were twenty-seven cards that the Prayer Group had sent Racene over the years. Accompanied with the cards was a note from Pam. Here is what she wrote:

“Dear Tuesday Morning Prayer Group of Morristown Church of Christ,
We just wanted to say ‘Thank you’ for all of your years of love, encouragement and support. She was truly blessed to have you all as friends. This is just a small portion of all the cards my mom received from you all. She loved to get them, so thank you again! It meant a lot to her, we just wanted you to know.”

How awesome is that! I was so touched that Pam had taken the time in the midst of her grief to send us that package and note. While we don’t receive packages or notes like hers everyday, we frequently receive expressions of appreciation for the Prayer Group’s ministry.

Their work calls to mind Jesus’ words from Matthew 10:42 - “And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward.” You see, even the smallest of gestures and simplest acts of kindness are big deals when they done in the name of Christ.

Thank you to our Prayer Group for your continued service to others. Thank you also to those who have continued sending cards over the past three months. They are doing more good than you probably realize! Whether we send cards or not, let’s all continue to pray for and serve one another. And may we never grow weary of doing good (Galatians 6:9). — Blaine

RECORDING ONLINE ATTENDANCE: Now that we have restarted public worship gatherings, we will do our best to record the number of our members who worship with us online. If you join us through the church’s Facebook page, please take a moment each Sunday to “Like” or comment on the livestream. If you join us through the church’s website, please email us or text Blaine to let us know you’re with us. Thank you for your help with this!
