Winter Quarter - Next Week!

December is only one week away! The winter quarter of Bible classes kicks off next Sunday, December 1. Here is a rundown of adult and teen classes:

- Sunday Mustard Seeds — “Jesus and the Pharisees”: It was no secret. Jesus had issues with the Pharisees, and the Pharisees had issues with Jesus. How could a group of people who faithfully went to synagogue and studied every detail of the law and prophets week after week miss the Messiah? And how could a man who later described himself as the Pharisee of the Pharisees find him? Join Tom Montgomery and the Mustard Seeds class this quarter, and let’s discuss.
- Sunday Adult Auditorium — Acts: David Willbanks leads the continued study of the book of Acts and topics connected to it.
- Sunday Teens — “The Parables”: Jesus used a series of simple stories to teach profound lessons about what it’s like to live in God’s kingdom. How do Jesus’ most memorable teachings continue to lead us today? Join Spencer Morris as he helps teens see the parables for all that they are.
- Wednesday Adults & Teens — “Left to Our Own Devices”: We all see how technology is changing the world, but how is it changing us? This class will explore both positive and negative uses of technology and how to remain committed to Christ in a high-tech world. Blaine Kelly will teach the adult class, while John Dean, Jordan Holt & Jeff Maxwell team up to teach the teens. Credit goes to Jim Ross for the title of this class.

Children’s Bible Class Materials

Teachers, you can find your materials for the coming quarter’s Bible classes in the main office today. If you have any questions, please see Blaine.
